FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Dynamic Industries International LLC, a Dynamic Energy Services International Company, announces Joint Venture.

Houston, TX – April, 2015 - Dynamic Industries International LLC. (Dynamic), a full service brownfield construction, fabricator, hook-up and commissioning contractor to the global offshore oil and gas industries, and Bandariyah International Company Ltd., (BIC), a Saudi Arabian company, specializing in the oil and gas industry, electrical, mechanical and instrumentation providing complete solutions, services, and technology transfer for different market segments; are proud to announce the signing ceremony to inaugurate Dynamic Industries Saudi Arabia Limited (DISA); a Saudi Arabian joint-venture, dedicated to offering Dynamic's world-class, offshore EPCI project execution services to Saudi Aramco and affiliates.

DISA was established to support Saudi Aramco as they continue their vast offshore expansion to develop non-associated gas fields, maintain existing production and expand west towards the Red Sea. DISA has positioned itself for long-term success in the Kingdom and seeks to expand its footprint to capitalize on the abundance of resources available in Saudi Arabia. Emile Dumesnil, CEO of Dynamic Energy Services International, (DYNESI), said "Finalizing our JV with BIC is an important next step in establishing DISA as a permanent presence in the Kingdom. We look forward to many years of working with BIC, supporting Aramco in their world-class expansion plans and investing in local facilities."

Donnie Sinitiere, Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer of Dynamic said "We are honored to receive our Saudi Aramco in-Kingdom vendor registration number and enthusiastically look forward to competing for work with one of the world's most prestigious oil companies; Saudi Aramco. Equally exciting is having a platform to create additional career opportunities for the Saudi workforce in our industry." Based in Saudi Arabia, DISA will also be marketing its services to other Oil & Gas operators in the Middle East region.

Mohammed Al Ghamdi, CEO of Bandariyah International said "We are proud to have partnered with such a reputable American establishment and look forward to the knowledge-transfer our Kingdom and stakeholders will derive." The signing ceremony was held on April 15, 2015.

DISA's corporate offices will be located in Al Khobar, Saudi Arabia. Currently, plans are being developed and finalized for the offshore support base facility, which will be located in or near a port in the Eastern Province. DISA plans to offer the full range of services to Saudi Aramco identical to the services provided by Dynamic in other parts of the world including EPCI services, facility maintenance and fabrication services.
